The following prayer-poem is for the beginning of a new day, and equally appropriate for the first Sunday of a new year, a new decade.

Dear God, in Your hands
I place myself on this day.
Your purpose for my life,
Your perfection for my body,
Your abundance to fill my need -
In Your hands lie these,
And their fulfillment in my life
Is sure if by my will and my desire
I, too, am totally in Your hands.
Guide me, then, in Your ways
Throughout the whole of this day -
Free my mind of fear and doubt
That I may think creatively,
Free my body of its limitations
That it may be strong and vital,
Free my spoken word of hesitation
And my action from indecision.
In Your hands I place my total self
For I am Yours, dear Father-God.

IT'S UP TO YOU!!

"What's up to me?"

TO BE YOU, THAT'S WHAT'S UP TO YOU!!

There comes a time when each individual must strike out for himself, must face himself . .
. in his own inner recesses he must seek and find the light. (F. Coblenz)

Be
What you must be.
Listen
To your inner advisor.
That
Is all that matters.
Live
From within.
There is
No other life.
Be!

(J. Engle)

1st Sunday in Lent
February 15, 1970

THE IS LENT (and what is Lent?) Lent is the period of 40 weekdays and 6 Sundays preceding Easter. The name is from an old Anglo-Saxon word meaning spring. It is the season of awakening, budding, and resurrection. It is the promise that right now and right here life can be renewed for YOU. LENT is the time for coming alive to new things and new experiences.
