"And whatever you ask in prayer, you will receive if you have faith."
Matthew 21:22

Today we dedicate Natalie Nichole, daughter of Teresa and Michael Griffith, granddaughter of Carol and Fred Grubbs and Florence and Bill Griffith. Natalie was born on November 10th.

A Mini-Prayer, by Elizabeth Searle Lamb

Dear God,
You are my freedom
no matter what bars seem to hold me back;
You are my potential even when I seem to make no progress;
You are my challenge to growth.

The promise is to you and to your children.

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow love.
Where there is injury, pardon.
Where there is discord, unity.
Where there is doubt, faith.
Where there is error, truth.
Where there is despair, hope.
Where there is sadness, joy.
Where there is darkness, light.
O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek
To be consoled, as to console.
To be understood, as to understand.
To be loved, as to love.

For:

It is in giving, that we receive.
It is in pardoning, that we are pardoned.
It is in dying, that we are born to eternal life.

Francis of Assisi was brother to every human - and to every thing. He loved the earth. He loved the sky.
He loved animals and insects and people and cities.
He was one of two or three Christians in whom Christ-ianity most nearly reached its fullness. He is our Western Gandhi, our most lovely imitator of the Lord.
(Michael Novak)

St. Francis was born in 1182. This year is his 800th birthday! Along with all our brothers and sisters of the Christian faith, we join in remembering him.

Is not the cup of thanksgiving
a participation in the blood of Christ?

Making known God's ways

That text from the Psalms launched a movement which, 175 years later, still calls for allegiance. It was the sermon text when, on February 6, 1812 in Salem, Massachusetts, for the first time in America, five young men were commissioned and set apart for the new and uncertain venture of overseas missions. Two of the five, with brides of less than a week, set sail from Salem a few days later on the Caravan, and the other three shortly thereafter on the Harmony from Philadelphia. Their task: "Making God's Ways Known" in Asia. Thousands have followed in their wake—to Asia, Africa, Europe and Latin America.

Adoniram Judson and Luther Rice were among the five. More than any others, they helped North American Christians to see and embrace the Great Commission of Jesus Christ. Their commitment, their witness, their example, launched American Baptists' overseas ministries.

Dr. Samuel Spring, an eloquent preacher and early supporter of missions, in his charge to the young men of Salem declared that "no enterprise comparable to this has been embraced by the American church. All others retire before it, like stars before the rising sun." His words remain true!

Now, as we mark the 175th anniversary of their commissioning and their sailing, the needs and challenges they faced have not diminished. The call is still for men and women who will go, and for the necessary funds to sustain them and to enable them and those with whom they witness to continue to make God's ways known. The 1987 World Fellowship Offering is your opportunity to honor their vision, share in their witness and sustain the cause before which all others pale "as the stars before the rising sun": "Making Known God's Ways."

RIVERS HARDLY EVER

by James Dillet Freeman

Rivers hardly ever run in a straight line.
Rivers are willing to take ten thousand meanders
And enjoy every one
And grow from every one -

When they leave a meander
They are always more
Than when they entered it.

When rivers meet an obstacle,
They do not try to run over it;
They merely go around -
But they always get to the other side.

Rivers accept things as they are,
Conform to the shape they find the world in -
Yet nothing changes things more than rivers;
Rivers move even mountains into the sea.

Rivers hardly ever are in a hurry -
Yet is there anything more likely
To reach the point it set out for
Than a river?

Let the fields be jubilant, and everything in them.

A SPRING DAY IN THE FALL

by Clara Baldwin

How rich, how rare
A spring day in the fall!
A high clear blue
Sparkling on the fruiting world,
Yellows burnished into gold,
Reds a heady wine.
All nature spurred alive
For one final fling.
Leaves fall like golden rain,
Acorns rattle down,
Migrating birds hesitate,
an added flourish in their call.
Bees work these last fateful hours,
as an extra dividend.
A gift to lift, a gift of hope in nature's golden time.
A golden gift:
A bright fall day of spring!

Teach me thy way, O LORD.

"Reaching Out by All Means"

1. Reach out to all the nations, o'er all the world today
To those who hurt and sorrow, now, go without delay.
So many folks are hurting and need your helping hand;
The mission of our Savior . . . is His command.

Chorus

Reach out, reach out, to all the world today,
To all the world, the whole wide world, His will we must obey.
Reach out, reach out, the ocean we will span -
For those who've never heard His word,
We'll do the best we can.

2. Reach out to all the nations, the needs are everywhere.
We follow in the footsteps of Christ who came to share.
He saw the needs of people and met them everyone;
So now we're in the service . . . of God's own Son!

RESPONSIVE READING

LEADER: Why have you come?

PEOPLE: We have come to share the Good News,
Jesus Christ is with us today!

LEADER: Are you certain? Can you be sure?

PEOPLE: We have the record of the Word of God.
And the scriptures therein bear witness with our spirits with a truth which seeks out the hidden places of our hearts and bares the secrets of our souls.

LEADER: But is this Word of God enough to convince us that our Lord is alive and with us?

PEOPLE: It isn't just the Book. It is the Spirit of that Book, the Holy Spirit of God who moves across the waters of our personal existence and recreates our lives anew.

LEADER: And what is this new creation with which the Christ has marked our lives?

PEOPLE: We have had the anguish of our guilt exchanged for the peace of forgiveness. We have had our unbelief and cynicism replaced with faith and hope. We dared to believe and the Lord helped our unbelief. We have had our lives changed, our faith rewarded, and our prayers answered. In short, we are Christians, and our lives have been changed.

LEADER: But what of death, and the grave?

PEOPLE: Jesus Christ has helped us consider the meaning of our personal death. And we believe God's promise that we shall not see death, but shall pass from death unto life because we believe the central truth of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ.

LEADER: And is this belief enough to sustain us in the face of our shortcomings, doubts and inconsistencies?

PEOPLE: Thank God, the matter of our personal keeping is not ours to safeguard. We are kept by the power of God's grace.

LEADER: Then it seems that no amount of questioning can shake the foundation of our faith?

PEOPLE: Our faith is only as certain as the power of God and the Resurrection of our Lord.

LEADER: And so, why have you come?

PEOPLE: We have come for celebration! We have come for joy! We have come to worship. We are the Church of Christ and it is time for us to draw aside with our Lord.

THE SHEPHERDS

by Anita Wheatcroft

First came the shepherds.

The childlike always come to Him

More quickly, regardless of their age.

Wise men deliberate, weigh costs,

And plan. They buy elaborate gifts,

Then wait, til stars and signs are right.

But shepherds, trusting,
Travel light.

Only themselves they bring.

The door is on the latch tonight,
The hearth-fire is aglow,
I seem to hear soft passing feet -
The Christ child in the snow.

DISTRIBUTION OF THE CANDLES*

The pastor lights a candle from the altar candles; the ushers light their candles from the pastor's candle. The ushers then light the candle of each worshiper nearest the aisle.

Lighted candles should not be dipped, to avoid wax dripping on the floor. The unlighted candle should be dipped when lighting it from a neighbor's candle.

SILENT NIGHT, HOLY NIGHT!

Silent night, holy night!
All is calm, all is bright
Round yon virgin mother and child.
Holy Infant, so tender and mild,
Sleep in heavenly peace,
Sleep in heavenly peace.

Silent night, holy night!
Shepherds quake at the sight;
Glories stream from heaven afar,

Heav'nly hosts sing, Alleluia!
Christ, the Savior, is born!
Christ, the Savior, is born!

Silent night, holy night!
Son of God, love's pure light
Radiant beams from your holy face,
With the dawn of redeeming grace,
Jesus, Lord, at your birth,
Jesus, Lord, at your birth. —Joseph Mohr

PRAYER FOR CHRISTMAS

Almighty God, you made this holy night shine with the brightness of the true Light. Grant that here on earth we may walk in the light of Jesus' presence and in the last day wake to the brightness of his glory; through your only Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

JOY TO THE WORLD

Joy to the world, the Lord is come!
Let earth receive its King;
Let ev'ry heart prepare him room
And heav'n and nature sing,
And heav'n and nature sing,
And heav'n, and heav'n and nature sing.

Joy to the earth, the Savior reigns!
Let all their songs employ,
While fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains
Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat, repeat the sounding joy.

No more let sin and sorrow grow
Nor thorns infest the ground;
He comes to make his blessings flow
Far as the curse is found,
Far as the curse is found,
Far as, far as the curse is found.

He rules the world with truth and grace
And makes the nations prove
The glories of his righteousness
And wonders of his love,
And wonders of his love,
And wonders, wonders of his love.

PROCESSIONAL CHRISTMAS CAROL

O COME, ALL YE FAITHFUL

Oh, come, all ye faithful, Joyful and triumphant!
Oh, come ye, oh, come ye to Bethlehem;
Come and behold him, Born the King of angels:
Oh, come, let us adore him, Oh, come, let us adore him,
Oh, come, let us adore him, Christ the Lord!

Sing, choirs of angels, Sing in exultation,
Sing, all ye citizens of heaven above!
Glory to God, In the highest:
Oh, come, let us adore him, Oh, come, let us adore him,
Oh, come, let us adore him, Christ the Lord! — attr. John F. Wade

Repeat the stanzas until the procession has been completed.

CHRISTMAS DIALOG

Pastor: The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

Congregation: Those who dwelt in the land of deep darkness, on them has light shined. We have beheld Christ's glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father.

The Gloria Patri may be sung by choir and congregation.

SCRIPTURE READING: Isaiah 9:6-7; Micah 5:2

O LITTLE TOWN OF BETHLEHEM

O little town of Bethlehem,
How still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
The silent stars go by;
Yet in thy dark streets shineth
The everlasting light.
The hopes and fears of all the years
Are met in thee tonight.

How silently, how silently
The wondrous gift is giv'n!
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of his heav'n.

No ear may hear his coming;
But, in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive him, still
The dear Christ enters in.

O holy Child of Bethlehem,
Descend to us, we pray;
Cast out our sin, and enter in,
Be born in us today.
We hear the Christmas angels
The great glad tidings tell;
Oh, come to us, abide with us,
Our Lord Immanuel! — Phillips Brooks

ANGELS, FROM THE REALMS OF GLORY

Angels, from the realms of glory,
Wing your flight o'er all the earth;
Once you sang creation's story;
Now proclaim Messiah's birth:
Come and worship, come and worship,
Worship Christ, the newborn king.

Shepherds, in the fields abiding,
Watching o'er your flocks by night,
God with us is now residing,
Yonder shines the infant light.
Come and worship, come and worship,
Worship Christ, the newborn king.
— James Montgomery

CHRISTMAS GOSPEL: Luke 2:1-7

IT CAME UPON THE MIDNIGHT CLEAR

It came upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth
To touch their harps of gold:
"Peace on the earth, good will to all,
From heav'n's all-gracious king."
The world in solemn stillness lay
To hear the angels sing.

And you, beneath life's crushing load,
Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the climbing way
With painful steps and slow:
Look now, for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing;
Oh, rest beside the weary road
And hear the angels sing!

— Edmund H. Sears

HARK! THE HERALD ANGELS SING

Hark! The herald angels sing,
"Glory to the newborn king;
Peace on earth, and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled."
Joyful, all you nations, rise;
Join the triumph of the skies;
With angelic hosts proclaim,
"Christ is born in Bethlehem!"
Hark! The herald angels sing,
"Glory to the newborn king."

Hail the heav'n-born Prince of Peace!
Hail the sun of righteousness!
Light and life to all he brings,
Ris'n with healing in his wings.
Mild he lays his glory by,
Born that we no more may die,
Born to raise each child of earth,
Born to give us second birth.
Hark! The herald angels sing,
"Glory to the newborn king!"

— Charles Wesley

CHRISTMAS GOSPEL: Luke 2:8-20

ANTHEM or SPECIAL MUSIC

THE FIRST NOEL

The first Noel the angel did say
Was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay;
In fields where they lay, keeping their sheep,
On a cold winter's night that was so deep.
Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel!
Born is the King of Israel.

They looked up and saw a star
Shining in the east beyond them far;
And to the earth it gave great light,
And so it continued both day and night.
Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel!
Born is the King of Israel.

This star drew near to the northwest,
O'er Bethlehem it took its rest;
And there it did both stop and stay
Right over the place where Jesus lay.
Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel!
Born is the King of Israel.

Then entered in those Wise Men three,
Full rev'rently upon their knee,
And offered there, in his presence
Their gold, and myrrh, and frankincense.
Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel!
Born is the King of Israel. — English

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

We believe that God loved the world so much that He gave
His only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him

should not be lost, but should have eternal life.

We believe that, as followers of Christ, we are the light of the world and should let our light so shine before men that they may see our good works and give glory to our Father who is in Heaven.

We believe we should love our enemies and pray for those who persecute us, so that we may be faithful sons and daughters of our Father who is in Heaven.

We believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the Living God, and that on this belief He continues to build His Church. Amen!
