Bring things for Judson Hills

I have a dream that one day every valley shall be exalted, every hill and mountain shall be made low, the rough places will be made plain, and the crooked places will be made straight, and the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together.

This is our hope. This is the faith which I return to the South.

With this faith we will be able to hew out of the mountain of despair a stone of hope.

With this faith we will be able to transform the jangling discords of our nation into a beautiful symphony of brotherhood. With this faith we will be able to work together, to pray together, to struggle together, to go to jail together, to stand up for freedom together, knowing that we will be free one day. This will be the day when all of God's children will be able to sing with a new meaning, "My country, 'tis of thee, sweet land of liberty, of thee I sing. Land where my fathers died, land of the pilgrim's pride, from every mountainside, let freedom ring."

I have a dream

MEDITATION BEFORE THE SERVICE:

In his Sermon on the Plain, Jesus gives us an impossible ethic, not simply because it is so demanding, but because it beckons us to be like God. God is merciful beyond compare; and we are called to be the same. Reaching toward this impossible goal draws us closer to God. Thomas Long

We all need to go into the desert occasionally. It is a lonely place and there may be temptation, but there is also quietness and solitude and a measure of beauty. It is any place where we come face-to-face with our helplessness and our need to depend on God's strength.

Some seem to think that it is enough to step into church once in a while. Leader: Let love be genuine; hate what is evil; hold fast to what is good.

People: Love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honor.

Leader: Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord.

People: Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer.

ALL: Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers.

Leader: Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them.

People: Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep.

Leader: Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are.

ALL: Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all.

Leader: If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all.

People: Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave room for the wrath of God; for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord."

Leader: No, "if your enemies are hungry, feed them; if they are thirsty, give them something to drink; for by doing this you will heap coals of fire on their heads."

ALL: Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

UNISON PRAYER: Almighty God, with open arms, extended for all to see upon the cross of your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord, you have welcomed all into your heart and into your presence. As we have been so welcomed, may we so live that all may know in our actions and words the love of the One who knelt to wash the feet of all who know life as a weary traveler. Amen.

Peace Sunday

ORDER OF WORSHIP

10:45 A.M.

Nursery and toddler care are available in the Education Wing during worship.

MEDITATION BEFORE THE SERVICE:

As Christians, we are invited to follow our Shepherd, Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace. Part of that following is responding to the violence that is in our world. Our hope is for a world where human beings 'study war no more.' We want to see God's shalom in corporate boardrooms, in family rooms and breakfast cooks, in our nations' classrooms; yes - even on battlefields and inner-city jungles. Jesus says "Blessed are the peacemakers" and promises "my peace, I give to you."

MEDITATION BEFORE THE SERVICE

The sails were spilling wind,
The boat was taking waves.
The mast began to bend.
Then called the Lord who saves:
"Be still, be still, and rage no more!
Let peace descent on sea and shore."

Through every act and word
Of all our living days
May Christ's own voice be heard
Until the world obeys:
"Be still, be still, and rage no more!
Let peace descend on sea and shore."

INTROIT

CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: In a world of competition and hard work,

People: It is good for us to come aside and to rest.

Leader: In a world torn by anger and stress,

People: It is a good thing for us to bathe in God's love.

Leader: In a world ruled by oppression and violence,

People: It is good for us to consider what we can do together to bring healing and justice.

Leader: In a world in which we are tempted to sacrifice everything for those things that do not satisfy,

People: It is good for us to restore our vision and by the grace of God to see things whole.

*HYMN OF PRAISE, #58

"This Is My Father's World"

*INVOCATION (In Unison)

We are again gathered in your house, seeking those things that can be obtained nowhere else. There is within us an inner restlessness which finds no peace until we find it in you; a hunger which finds no satisfaction in anything that is material.

We are here to seek more from life than we have thus far found; to find answers to life's mysteries that no human wisdom can provide. We ask, Lord, that you will meet all these needs of the inner life, through your son Jesus, who taught us your way and who taught us to pray...

We have, then, my friends, complete freedom to go to the Most Holy Place by means of the death of Jesus. He opened a new way, a living way, through the curtain – that is, through the body. Andrews House Partner Church Notes
August 2001

Second Fridays - Give an hour or two to help others! Volunteer for the Second Fridays community dinners. Contact your church representative to learn of your church’s responsibilities for the dinners on September 14 and October 12.

Additional Second Fridays Programming - Beginning in September we will be offering additional activities following the Second Fridays dinners. These activities will be focused on family activities and are open to everyone—regardless of whether you attend the dinner. The enclosed flyer lists the activities through December. The programming will continue through June of 2002.

An Additional Community Meal - A partnership with an area restaurant to provide an additional monthly meal may be possible. We are in the “talking” stage and are exploring possibilities.

Let’s Talk - The fall Let’s Talk will feature a candidates’ night. Watch for further details.

Ohio Reads Program - We still have students waiting to be paired with a tutor. Give Jill Lee a call at 369-4520 if you can help by becoming a mentor for a child and help him/her increase basic reading skills. After you become trained, the tutoring takes about 40 minutes twice a week.

Computer Learning Center - Contact Jill Lee at 369-4520 to register for a free computer class. We are also considering special interest groups for computer classes. Let us know if you have a special interest that you would like to share or explore—making greeting cards, games or competitions, genealogy searches, learning to use a scanner, etc. We need lab monitors to maintain our open access hours. If you have time that you are willing to donate to monitor the lab, please call. The time commitment is from one to three hours per week.

Holiday Bazaar - The dates for the Holiday Bazaar are November 30 and December 1. We will need crafts, baked goods, dried flowers, unique items—anything that might be popular around the holiday season. Contact Connie Whitaker at 369-2011 or Mary Reed at 368-4577 for more information. Plan to send a representative to the first planning meeting on Tuesday, September 11, at 9:30 a.m. at Andrews House. We need you and your ideas.

Announcing The First Baptist Holiday Video Production

What is your favorite Christmas memory?

Do you have a special photo from past holidays?

Will you share these treasures with our church family?

If the answer is yes to the above questions,

read on and become part of this year's

Christmas video production at First Baptist of Delaware!

The Board of Christian Education is planning to create a holiday video in celebration of Christmas. Please take a few moments of time to think of that cherished memory and/or to find that holiday favorite snapshot and become part of the First Baptist Holiday Video. Starting November 11th through December 9th, after each Sunday's service we will begin collecting these memories that will be combined into a church video production for the congregation that commemorates the joys of Christmas. All you have to do to participate in one or both of the following is:

1. Drop off a holiday photo in the envelope below.
2. Sign up for a time to be filmed telling of your favorite holiday memory.

Pick a convenient Sunday in your schedule of filming after church. It will only take a few minutes to tape and promises to provide generations a look back at what has made Christmas so special through the years!

Sleep in heavenly peace, Sleep in heavenly peace.

Silent night! holy night! Shepherds quake at the sight,
Glories stream from heaven afar,
Heav'nly hosts sing Alleluia;
Christ the Savior is born, Christ the Savior is born.

Silent night! holy night! Son of God, love's pure light,
Radiant beams from Thy holy face,
With the dawn of redeeming grace,
Jesus, Lord, at Thy birth, Jesus, Lord, at Thy birth.
